CITY LAUNCHES NEW WEBSITE

Hopewell, VA. The City of Hopewell is proud to announce the launch of its new redesigned website hopewellva.gov on Wednesday, March 1, 2017. The new website is structured so visitors can more quickly and easily navigate the site, thus eliminating the number of clicks needed to locate desired information, saving valuable time.

The new website features a mobile-friendly design that allows users to easily display and maneuver through the site of their preferred device, be it a smart phone, tablet or desktop computer, and is compliant with all federal accessibility requirements.

“The content of the new website is based on the needs of residents and other visitors,” said City Manager, Mark Haley. It is organized by category and provides multiple ways for citizens to find what they need in a convenient manner.”

“The new website redesign has been approximately a year in the making with the number 1 goal of being easier for the public to find information about City services, programs and events.” said the Honorable Jasmine Gore, Vice Mayor and Chair of the Website Ad-Hoc Committee.

The Website Ad-Hoc Committee members are the Honorable Jasmine Gore, Vice Mayor, Herbert Bragg, Director, Intergovernmental & Public Affairs, Terry Burd, Information Technology Manager, Ronnieye Arrington, Senior Executive Assistant, City Manager’s Office, Debra Pershing, Senior Executive Assistant to the City Manager, and Floyd Lark, Web Developer/Social Media Coordinator.

For inquiries, please contact Floyd Lark, Web Developer/Social Media Coordinator at (804) 415-1749 or flark@hopewellva.gov.
