[Hopewell, VA] – Police are asking for help to identify a driver who left the scene of an accident. On Saturday, February 19, 2022 at 6:22 pm, a traffic crash occurred at the intersection of High Ave. and Courthouse Rd. in Hopewell. A dirt bike and a vehicle collided, and the driver of the dirt bike is in critical condition. At this time, investigators have not determined who is at fault in the crash. However, the driver of the vehicle got out of the car, looked at the motorcycle driver, got back in his car, and left the area heading south on Rt. 156 toward Prince George County. The fleeing driver is described as a heavy-set black male who was driving a silver 4-door sedan with body damage and glass breakage; possibly a Nissan. Police have not released the name of the dirt bike driver.

The Hopewell Police Department is requesting that any person(s) who may have any information to provide, to contact the Hopewell Police at (804) 541-2222. Persons with information on this crime and who wish to remain anonymous may contact the Hopewell Prince George Crime Solvers hotline in Hopewell at (804) 541-2202 or provide their tip using the P3tips mobile app.
