Downtown Hopewell Full of Holiday Cheer!

Hopewell, VA—The holidays are in full swing in Downtown Hopewell, and the Hopewell Downtown Partnership invites you to come join in on the festive fun! Not only do their downtown businesses have unique products that make great gifts, there are also plenty of great events to keep you entertained through the holidays!

Legacy Roasting Company has teamed up with Burnette's Baked Goods to bring you the Social Box: a gift box containing two 3" pies made by Burnette's Baked Goods and a 2 oz bag of coffee from Legacy Roasting that can make a full pot. Are you looking for the perfect present for the sweet tooth in your life? Try Legacy Coffee's Coffee House Collection, a collaboration using their Fair Trade Organic Honduras coffee bean, fair trade cacao from Haiti by Taylor made Chocolate, and Chocolates by Kelly. Each cup contains a mix of 4 oz chocolate covered coffee beans with other sweets and treats to recreate some of their favorite coffee shop classics.

Celia's Gifts and Antiques, Gardener's Gate, Little Shops on Main and Creative Friends Art Center all have local and unique products for everyone on your list! Are you looking for something for that beach lover in your life? Check out Celia's collection of beach themed products! Want to get something hand made with love for your sweetheart? Check out Gardener's Gate and Little Shops on Main! Are you looking for something for your creative niece? Why not an art class at Creative Friends Art Center!

Haley's Honey Meadery, our newest Downtown Hopewell business, has your entertainment through the holidays covered! Some of their upcoming events include: Mead and Paint Night (12/21); Christmas Trivia (12/22); live performance by Sheely Bonet (12/22); and a partnership with Burnette's Baked Goods to offer a Pie and Mead tasting (12/23).
