Shooting Investigation Underway in the 1600 Block of Huntington Court

[Hopewell, VA] – On Wednesday, November 11, 2020 at approximately 9:30 P.M., Hopewell Police Telecommunications received multiple reports of shots being fired in the area of Huntington Court. As officers were responding, Telecommunications received additional information that a victim, with non-life threatening gunshot-related injury to her leg was inside a residence in the 1600 block of Huntington Court. Officers located the female, medical treatment was rendered at the scene, and the victim was transported to VCU Medical Center for further treatment

Officers also located a male victim who had non-life threatening gunshot-related injury to his leg inside another residence in the 1600 block of Huntington Court. Medical treatment was rendered at the scene and the victim was transported to VCU Medical Center for further treatment.

Specifics regarding the motive or circumstances surrounding the shootings, as well as, the identity of the victims are not being released at this time as detectives continue to actively investigate the incidents. Both residences the victims were inside sustained damages from the gunshots along with another residence that sustained minor damage because of the shooting.

Information was developed suggesting a red two-door sedan and possibly gray four-door vehicle were seen in the 1600 block of Huntington Court during the shooting.

The Hopewell Police Department is requesting that any person(s) who may have witnessed any activity in the 1600 block of Huntington Court or been in the area at the time or have any information to provide, to contact the Hopewell Criminal Investigation Unit (CIU) at (804) 541-2284. Persons with information on this crime and who wish to remain anonymous may contact the Hopewell Prince George Crime solvers hotline in Hopewell at (804) 541-2202 or provide their tip using the P3tips mobile app.
